WNGates.com Inc - Meeting your Legal Compliance Needs!

Streamlined Publishing Services

Here's the deal: Many organizations are legally required to post certain notices for the public regularly. Insurance organizations are required in many states to publicly post financial disclosures every year. These legal notices can include

- A synopsis of financial results for the previous calendar year,
- The number of claims filed, information on revenue and profit,
- Data on how many claims were paid and not paid,
- Contact information, and
- Other information that examines the company's exposure.

While these financial disclosures make up the bulk of legal notices, there are also other situations where one is legally required to post something to public notice. For example:

- Annual statements,
- Notices of an abandoned property,
- Bankruptcies, and
- Class actions.

What we can do for you: WNGates.com provides legal publishing services efficiently, accurately, and effectively.

Publishing in the Digital Age!

What's Up: creating a legal notice is twofold: clients complete information online, using our proprietary software, and then WNGates compiles data to create the completed notice, which is forwarded electronically to the respective newspaper. Notices are published in the newspapers, which have been vetted to obtain the best possible rate. Once confirmation of publication has been received, an Affidavit of Publication is provided electronically to complete the process.

The bottom line: Failure to make a legal notice can result in fines and other consequences, which is why WNGates can help you avoid legal challenges by managing the legal notices process from start to finish.

Talk about Change!

Our thought bubble: We've been helping companies manage their compliance as easily and cost-effectively as possible for many years.

WNGates.com Inc carries on the proud tradition of WN Gates Company, which was founded in 1878 – over 145 years!

One fun thing: Legal notices were once created using a typewriter as many as 80+ times to create enough copies for each county in a respective state. We would mail each copy, and wait for the tear sheets to be mailed back. Once tear sheets were received we would mail the respective Affidavit of Publication to clients.

The big picture: With the Internet and electronic communication channels, we now provide faster, more efficient, and easier service than ever before.

- You provide data to WNGates.com online or via email.
- We create the respective notice by transferring your data into the notice template.
- Notices are uploaded to newspapers (or emailed).
- Confirmation of publication is verified online and the Affidavit of Publication is immediately sent electronically to clients.

Most importantly, we continue to assess our processes to make certain we bring you the best possible service at the least possible cost.

Let WNGates.com Inc minimize your role in publishing your legal notices. You can be sure that your legal compliance requirements will be fulfilled in an efficient and user-friendly manner!
